La Scala is an elegant alpaca velvet that is amazingly dense and soft to the touch. The natural luster that is unique to alpaca fiber gives this durable velvet a subtle glow. Alpaca is known for its exceptional comfort and is especially suitable for people who have fiber sensitivity. Named for the world-famous opera house in Milano where velvet adorns the seats, La Scala will provide years of comfortable service. La Scala will upholster beautifully and drape with the glamour that is synonymous with quality velvet.
